

Inspiring Gardens and Scenery of New Zealand

January 28 – February 13, 2010

Join us as we venture down under for some of the most magnificent scenery and gardens in the world. New Zealand is a remarkable country with fantastic gardens and an exceptionally diverse terrain, from beautiful ocean vistas to steep mountains to volcanic mud pots. With many of your most beloved plants being bred and introduced into the New World from New Zealand, how can this garden tour be anything but marvelous!! We will have the memorable once in a lifetime opportunity to spend one night on a boat on Doubtful Sound, one of the most pristine fjords in New Zealand. Join us, you will talk about this trip for years to come!

Hidden Treasures
BOTANICAL TOURS

David Whiting and Jeffrey de Jong are thrilled to be your hosts to the newest country on earth, New Zealand. With careers in horticulture and a love for nature leading a trip to New Zealand is their idea of the perfect holiday. You may have been to Victoria British Columbia with these two entertaining and knowledgeable guides and now they want to take you to the wonderful world down under. It's time to return with a group of fortunate tourists who desire to take the trip of a lifetime. See you there David and Jeff

The Itinerary

Thursday, January 28, 2010 – Depart Los Angeles, USA

January 29 – En route to Auckland

As we cross the International Date Line we lose a day travelling “Down-Under.”

January 30 – Arrive Auckland

D

Welcome to New Zealand! Early morning meet and greet on arrival at Auckland International Airport by your Tour Manager/Driver. You will be transferred to your hotel where rooms have been reserved overnight for your early check in. This afternoon we enjoy a tour of the highlights of Auckland, the City of Sails. We also visit nearby Eden garden.

January 31 – Auckland

B

This morning we travel North of the city to see Muriwai, one of Auckland's popular surf beaches stopping to view Gannets nesting on the cliff tops. Here we visit stunning Totara Waters garden and stop at Coopers Creek Winery. We will stop for lunch at Carriages Café (own expense). We then visit the famous Ayrilies country garden, one of the most celebrated gardens in New Zealand. Tonight is free for you to explore the local restaurants, cafes and bars.

February 1 – Auckland

This morning we board a ferry for the journey across the Waitemata harbour to the island of Waiheke. Here we enjoy a tour of local gardens and the boutique vineyards that give the island its unique character. Tonight is free for you to explore the local restaurants, cafes and bars.

February 2 – Auckland to Dunedin

B, D

This morning we visit the Auckland Botanic Gardens home to over 10,000 plant types. Later we join our flight to the Edinburgh of the South – Dunedin. This evening we stay at the Lodge, a recreated colonial farm building set in 35 acres of award winning gardens and grounds at Larnach Castle.

February 3 – Dunedin

B, D

This morning we have a guided tour of the castle and 14 hectares of grounds. Then we journey to Natures Wonders for a wildlife tour. Here, amidst truly spectacular scenery, the world's rarest penguins, Hoiho the yellow-eyed, the little blue penguins, the New Zealand fur seals and the Stewart Island Shags all live in harmony. Tonight we dine with a decidedly Scottish air enjoying the Haggis presentation and dinner.

February 4 – Dunedin

B, D

Today we visit Glenfalloch Gardens with its woodland display of many varieties of fuchsia. Doves flutter in the trees and peacocks roam free. The original homestead of 1871 still stands. After, we take a tour of Dunedin Botanical Gardens before visiting the historic Olveston House.

February 5 – Dunedin to Te Anau

This morning we depart Dunedin traveling to the incredible private garden, Maple Glen Garden. We then traverse across the south island to Te Anau and our accommodation. This evening we board a launch and travel across the lake to see the rushing underground water and glow worm grotto of Te Anau Caves.

February 6 – Te Anau to Doubtful Sound B, D

A relaxed start to the day before we prepare for our overnight cruise of Doubtful Sound deep in Fjordland National Park. Experience the “Sound of Silence” when the vessels engines are turned off for the night in a remote bay deep in the wilderness. We will have the opportunity to kayak – so plan to dress warm for this excursion.

February 7 – Queenstown

This morning returning to the dock at Deep Cove we retrace our steps and reboard our coach for the trip to Queenstown. This afternoon is at leisure. Tonight is free for you to explore the local restaurants, cafes and bars.

February 8 – Queenstown

B, D

Today is completely at your leisure to enjoy local activities of your choosing. This evening we take a cruise across Lake Wakatipu on the steamer TSS Earnslaw to Walter Peak Station to dine at the Colonel’s Homestead.

February 9 – Queenstown

B, D

Today we visit historic Arrowtown - a quaint town with plenty of shops and historic remains from the Gold Rush days. Here we visit Stoneridge Chapel and Water Garden for a guided tour. Next we visit Gibbston Valley Winery for a wine tasting and cave tour where you travel 76 meters into New Zealand’s largest and most innovative wine cave. This evening we will ride on the Gondola up to Bob’s Peak for dinner, which overlooks Lake Wakatipu and the impressive Remarkables Mountain Range.

February 10 – Queenstown to Tekapo

B, D

We will have a leisurely start to the day before we head north over the Lindis Pass to travel the vast Mackenzie Basin, to Lake Tekapo and the Church of the Good Shepherd and the statue of the Collie dog.

February 11 – Tekapo to Christchurch

B

This morning we travel across the Canterbury Plains into Christchurch. This afternoon is at your leisure.

February 12 – Christchurch

B, D

This morning we enjoy the sights of Christchurch, known as the ‘Garden City’. We will walk through the elegant Mona Vale, a historic Victorian homestead surrounded by English style gardens. This afternoon we visit Gethsemane Gardens, a biblical garden with an ocean view. We then travel over the port hills to one of New Zealand’s most celebrated gardens, Ohinetahi, the private garden of Sir Miles Warren. Tonight we enjoy a farewell dinner at the Curators Cottage in the Christchurch Botanical Garden.

February 13 – Christchurch - USA

Our last morning in New Zealand today we board our homeward flight. Crossing the dateline we arrive back in the United States on the same day.
